

KIRKLAND FIRE DEPARTMENT SPONSORS
COMMUNITY EMERGENCY RESPONSE TEAM
29 HOUR CERT COURSE

EARN 24 CONTINUING ED CREDIT HOURS**

Learn light search & rescue and disaster medical skills.
Learn triage, cribbing and crisis psychological interventions.
Get prepared at home, work, school, and on the road!

Winter 2009 COURSE

Evening course: 6:00 – 9:00 p.m.
Disaster Drill conducted 10:00 a.m - 3:00 p.m.

Thursday	February 5	Team Building, Disasters
Thursday	February 12	Disaster Prep, ICS, Size-Up
Thursday	February 19	Disaster Psych and Terrorism
Thursday	February 26	Light Search and Fire Safety
Thursday	March 5	Disaster Medical Operations I
Thursday	March 12	Light Rescue and Cribbing
Thursday	March 19	Disaster Medical Operations II
Thursday	March 26	Disaster Drill Practice
(tentative) Saturday	March 29	Course Drill

LEARN SKILLS THAT HELP YOU SURVIVE DISASTERS
WHEREVER YOU ARE AND HELP YOU ASSIST THE GREATER COMMUNITY PREPAREDNESS EFFORT

Free to residents, college students and people who work in Kirkland or Fire
District 41. $25 for others
Approved for 24 Continuing Education
Credit Hours through WWU

For more information on CERT visit: www.fema.gov, www.ci.kirkland.wa.us

Applications due by: January 31
(please note, we need a minimum of 20 participants to run the class)
Information and application materials at www.ci.kirkland.wa.us,
123 5th Ave., Kirkland, or Tracy Fitzgerald 425-587-3662
Completed applications may be faxed to 425-587-3704